COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW REPORT

Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical School

OVERVIEW OF REVIEW PROCEDURES

As one part of its school and school district accountability system, the Department of Education oversees local compliance with education requirements through the Coordinated Program Review system. All reviews include selected requirements in special education under the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. Section 1400 et seq. (IDEA-97) and M.G.L. Chapter 71B (Chapter 766 of the Acts of 1972) and certain federal civil rights requirements under Titles I and II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, together with related state requirements under M.G.L. Chapter 76, Section 5 (Chapter 622 of the Acts of 1971). Additionally, all reviews include certain standards included under the newly adopted Board of Education Physical Restraint Regulations (603 CMR 46.00). Other monitoring activities in the areas of the state's Transitional Bilingual Education law (M.G.L. Chapter 71A), federal requirements under Title I, the Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act, the Perkins Vocational and Technical Education Act, and Nutrition Programs and Services will be conducted in some districts during these Coordinated Program Reviews. The school districts and charter schools selected for review in 2001-2002 were notified by the Commissioner of Education in April 2001 the of scheduled visits and were encouraged to assess themselves before the arrival of the Department's visiting team.

Coordinated Program Review Elements

- Team: Depending upon the size of a school district and the number of program areas to be reviewed, a team of two to eight members conducts a Coordinated Program Review over two to seven days in a school district or charter school. The team may include Department consultants as well as Department staff members.
- Scope: Approximately sixty school districts and charter schools are scheduled to receive visits in school year 2001-2002. All school districts and charter schools in the Commonwealth are monitored through the Department's Coordinated Program Review system on a six-year cycle with an additional mid-cycle special education follow-up visit.
- Content: The Program Review criteria include certain of the statutory and regulatory requirements for each program area. In the case of special education, the criteria for the FY 2002 reviews contain, at a minimum, those elements required by the federal Office for Special Education Programs (OSEP) and revised requirements under IDEA-97 as described in the Department's Special Education Advisories. Additionally, the 2001-2002 reviews incorporate updated state special education requirements as adopted by the Board of Education, effective December 20, 2000. The Program Review compliance criteria selected in all of the regulated program areas are those that are most closely aligned with the goals of the Massachusetts Education Reform Act of 1993, being intended to promote high standards and achievement for all students.
- Report: The Department's report is based on a review of documentation regarding the operation of the district's programs, together with information gathered through the following Department program review methods:

- Interviews of administrative, instructional and support staff across all grade levels.
- Interviews of parent advisory council (PAC) representatives.
- Other interviews as requested by members of the general public.
- Review of student records in the special education, Transitional Bilingual Education, and Perkins vocational programs. Parents of students with disabilities whose files were selected for the record review are sent a survey that solicits information about their experiences with the district's implementation of special education programs, related services and procedural requirements.
- Observation of classrooms and other facilities. A sample of instructional classrooms and other school facilities used in the delivery of programs and services are visited to determine general levels of compliance with program and accessibility requirements.
- Interviews, review of student records, and observations in the case of collaborative programs and services. Where the district is a member of a collaborative approved by the Department of Education and serves as a site for any programs or services operated by the collaborative, interviews with collaborative staff, review of records of collaborative students, and observations of collaborative facilities are conducted.

Response: An executive summary and detailed findings for each program area describe determinations about the implementation status of each requirement (criterion) reviewed. The findings note those criteria the implementation of which the team found to be commendable. Where criteria were found not to be fully implemented, the local district or charter school must propose corrective actions to bring those areas into compliance with the controlling statutes or regulations. Districts are encouraged to incorporate the corrective action into their district and school improvement plans, including their professional development plan.

The Department of Education believes that the Coordinated Program Review process is a positive experience and that the Final Report should be seen as a helpful planning document for the continuing development of programs and services in the school district or charter school.

REPORT INTRODUCTION

A six-member Massachusetts Department of Education team visited the Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical School during the week of April 29, 2002 to evaluate the implementation of selected criteria in the program areas of special education, civil rights, Title I, the Perkins Vocational and Technical Education Act and Nutrition Programs and Services. The team appreciated the opportunity to interview staff and parents, to observe classroom facilities and to review the programs underway in the district. The onsite team would like to commend the following areas that were brought to its attention and that it believes have a significant and positive impact on the delivery of educational services for students enrolled in the Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical School. These areas are as follows:

At Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical School, staff are committed to student achievement and have created an educational community where diverse populations have come together and are engaging in learning. Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical School is to be commended for the programs available for pregnant students. The district has extensive supports in place to assist pregnant students, including counseling, tutoring and daycare.

The district is also to be commended for the involvement of students, parents, representatives of business and labor, advisory committees and school councils in the development, implementation and evaluation of career and technical programs. There is career and technical representation on the School Council, as well as appropriate representation of parents and community members on career and technical advisory committees. The district is currently engaged in a strong partnership with local business to develop/implement a Chapter 74 approved Masonry program, and is to be commended for the partnerships it has fostered with agencies, businesses and post-secondary schools.

The district is to be commended for the Perkins funded professional development activities. In addition to the 15% minimum expenditure, local funds are made available to all staff for professional development. Curriculum content and teaching strategies have improved as a result of the Perkins funded conferences, training and seminars.

Some of the commendations noted above are repeated within the body of the Department's report under the appropriate compliance criteria.

The Department is submitting the following Coordinated Program Review Report containing findings made pursuant to this onsite visit. In preparing this report, the team reviewed extensive written documentation regarding the operation of the district's programs, together with information gathered by means of following Department program review methods:

- Interviews of seven administrative staff.
- Interviews of 45 teaching and support services staff across all levels.
- Interviews of three parent advisory council (PAC) representatives, and other interviews as requested by persons from the general public.
- Interviews of 27 students.
- Student record reviews: A sample of 47 student records was selected by the Department. Student records were first examined by local staff, whose findings were then verified by the onsite team using standard Department of Education student record review procedures to make determinations regarding the implementation of procedural and programmatic requirements.
- Parent surveys: Twenty parents of students with disabilities were sent surveys that solicited information regarding their experiences with the district's implementation of special education programs, related services and procedural requirements. Eight of these parent surveys were returned to the Department of Education for review by the onsite team.

- Observation of classrooms and other facilities. A sample of 22 instructional classrooms and other school facilities used in the delivery of programs and services was visited to determine general levels of compliance with program requirements.

The report includes findings in the program areas reviewed organized under nine components . These components are listed in the executive summary on the following pages. The findings in each program area explain the “ratings, ”determinations by the team about the implementation status of the criteria reviewed. The ratings indicate those criteria that were found by the team to be substantially “Implemented” or implemented in a “Commendable” manner. (Refer to the “Definition of Terms” section of the report.) Where criteria were found to be either "Partially Implemented" or "Not Implemented," the district or charter school must propose to the Department corrective actions to bring those areas into compliance with the controlling statute or regulation. In some instances the team may have rated a requirement as “Implemented” but made a specific comment on the district’s implementation methods that also may require response from the district or charter school.

Districts are expected to incorporate the corrective action into their district and school improvement plans, including their professional development plan.

COORDINATED PROGRAM REVIEW REPORT

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Montachusett Regional Vocational Technical School

The following summary synthesizes the findings for criteria included in the Coordinated Program Review as they respond to essential questions which the Department has formulated for each of the components of the report. Note that a more detailed discussion of the onsite team's findings, together with the specific legal standards for each program area included in this review, follows this summary.

Component I: Assessment of Student Progress

Has the district implemented an assessment system that uses appropriate instruments, is conducted according to the specified timelines, and covers the appropriate content areas to determine instructional needs of students?

Evaluation assessments are often the sole criterion for determining the most appropriate program for special education students. Assessments are not always conducted in all areas related to the suspected disability, and educational assessments and teacher assessments are not completed for all students. The required procedures are not consistently completed when determining whether a student has a specific learning disability and not all of the Team members are present at Team meetings. The regulatory timelines for special education assessments and re-assessments, as well as the provision of the IEPs, are not always met. Progress reports do not contain the required narrative. However, all students with disabilities take part in MCAS testing.

In the area of Title I, MCAS testing is used appropriately to measure the progress of the district and the proficiency of students. MCAS and other local assessment results are analyzed to determine program needs of students most at risk, to inform of Title I program design and services and to evaluate the impact on student achievement.

The Perkins vocational program uses appropriate assessments for program planning and to identify the individual needs of students. Competency-based student checklists and senior portfolios are used to measure vocational-technical skill attainment and progress. The district must adopt national program standards in vocational areas; however, the Automotive and Auto Body program currently meets the national program standard.

Component II: Student Identification and Program Placement

Has the district followed procedures for student identification and placement into the program according to the criteria specified in regulations?

The district conducts outreach in order to ensure that students with disabilities are identified. IEPs do not consistently address students' present levels of educational performance and the district does not consistently consider what part of the regular education program the student can participate in before deciding on any separate programs or services. Although special education students take part in various exploratories, the Buildings and Grounds program has only students with high needs, as indicated on the IEPs. Extended school year services are not routinely considered for all students who are likely to demonstrate substantial regression. Additionally, vocational education staff are not consistently notified of the required modifications and accommodations identified in student IEPs.

The district has made available a description of the multiple, objective, educationally-related criteria used to identify students eligible for Title I services. The criteria are developed in consultation with the parents, administrators, and pupil services personnel. The district has effective policies for identifying limited English proficient students and for measuring English language proficiency. Limited English proficient students are identified for Title I services on the same basis as other students.

The district has a system for identifying career and technical education students for Perkins-funded activities and services, as well as for identifying special population students in order to provide these students with appropriate services.

The district is to be commended for the extensive supports that are in place for pregnant students, including counseling, home tutoring and daycare.

Component III: Parental Involvement

Has the district ensured that parents are notified in the appropriate language and are involved in decisions regarding their children's programs and services? Where appropriate, does the district involve community representatives in shaping programs?

The special education administration has made attempts to set up a parent advisory council, however, there is no advisory council for special education at this time. Although letters are translated into the parents' native languages, the district does not translate IEPs and progress reports, and not all of the current IEPs have been signed by parents or students. The district sends the appropriate notification to parents regarding Team meetings and the district receives parental consent before assessing students. The IEP or a written explanation of the finding of no eligibility is not always provided to parents immediately following Team meetings. Although the district reviews handbooks with limited English proficient students, the handbook has not yet been translated.

For Title I services, an annual assessment of the effectiveness of parental involvement is not conducted, and the district lacks written policies and procedures for parental involvement. The district provides materials and training to Title I parents in order to assist them in improving their children's achievement. Parents of Title I students have an equal opportunity to be represented on local School Councils.

The district is commended for the involvement of the students, parents, representatives of business and labor, advisory committees and school councils in the development, implementation and evaluation of career and technical programs. The district is engaged in a strong partnership with local business to develop and implement a Chapter 74 approved Masonry program. All appropriate information concerning career and technical education is provided to students and their families, however, the district does not consistently translate information regarding career and technical education for limited English proficient students and parents.

Component IV: Curriculum and Instruction

Does the district hold all students to high expectations and standards? Are programs designed to maximize student performance and students' participation in the general curriculum? Is curriculum throughout the districts' programs aligned with the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks? Has the district provided for coordination across program areas?

The district holds most students to high expectations and standards. The curriculum is aligned with the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks, however, participation in the general curriculum is not consistently documented in the IEPs. Aides, accommodations and modifications are not in place in the vocational programs, other than in Buildings and Grounds. Specialized materials and assistive technology are provided to students, when recommended by the Team. The size of instructional groups for a few of the substantially separate classrooms exceeds the required student:teacher ratio. The district provides all students with the opportunity to participate in extra-curricular activities.

Title I services assist students to meet the expectations and standards of the regular education curriculum and the Curriculum Frameworks. There is an established process for coordination and collaboration of Title I services with various programs throughout the district and efforts are being made to minimize removing students from the regular education classroom during school hours.

Vocational programs have strategies to improve academic and career and technical skills, and students have the opportunity to take rigorous courses. The district must revise and strengthen the plan to reflect the staffing and curriculum changes. Academic courses are aligned with the Curriculum Frameworks. The district is commended for the proactive plan to fully utilize technology in order to improve education. Classrooms and shops are equipped with state-of-the-art computers, and current software and applicable technical skills are incorporated into each academic and technical course. The district has established several linkages with post-secondary programs, and articulation agreements are in place with community colleges and four-year universities.

Instruction in all aspects of the industry is evident in the career and technical courses, but could be strengthened in the academic courses. Teachers are attempting to work together on integrated projects so that instruction occurs in all aspects of the industry. The district is to be commended for the Perkins funded professional development activities that are available to staff. Staff are encouraged to participate in training and are supported in the positive changes made throughout the district as a result of the training and conferences.

Component V: Student Support Services

Has the district ensured that all students have equal access to programs and services? Does the district provide support to students who need it?

The district does not provide supports through behavioral intervention plans for students, however, there are adequate procedures in place for suspending students. Staff have been trained in the physical restraint regulatory requirements. All students receive counseling and information on the full range of curricular and occupational/vocational services available to them. Although all students take part in the exploratory process for vocational placement, special education students do not have access to all vocational courses, because aides and supports are not consistently available in these areas.

The district offers a range of related services to students, however, transportation services are not consistently discussed at Team meetings. Although the district's brochures depict students in some nontraditional roles, there are only a few instructors in nontraditional roles and there is no formal program for ongoing support or for mentoring students in nontraditional roles.

Title I services are designed to supplement regular education, special education, TBE, and services for low incidence limited-English proficient students. Additional assistance is provided through teacher-parent conferences for any students not meeting the standards, to discuss what the school will do in order to help the student meet the standards and what the family can do to help the student improve performance, as well as to discuss additional assistance for the student at the school or elsewhere in the community.

Component VI: Faculty, Staff and Administration

Does the district maintain certified staff in the specific program areas, provide supervision of aides and tutors, and provide ongoing professional development? Are program leadership and oversight effective? Are the district's personnel procedures non-discriminatory and does it seek to recruit employees from all groups?

District staff are appropriately certified. The district does not have a curriculum accommodation plan in place to ensure that all efforts have been made to meet the needs of diverse learners in the general education program. The district does not provide training to special education paraprofessionals and assistants related to their responsibilities, and the aides do not have a specific supervisor who is readily available to assist them and answer questions. Staff members are encouraged to participate in outside professional development activities, however, not all staff have received training in analyzing and accommodating diverse learning styles, methods of collaboration to accommodate diverse learning needs of all students and the provision of pre-referral services within regular education. The district's recruitment procedures are nondiscriminatory and are aimed at reaching all groups.

Title I teacher aides work under the direct supervision and in close proximity of certified teachers. The professional development activities for Title I staff support instructional practices that are conducive to high achievement and challenging content. The district devotes sufficient resources to effectively carry out its responsibilities for professional development for Title I staff.

Component VII: School Facilities

Does the district maintain accessible facilities that are conducive to learning, facilitate integration, and provide equal opportunity for students to achieve?

The facilities present a positive learning environment for the district's diverse student population. In order for the building to be fully accessible, the district should provide accessible door handles and tactile signage in the old section of the school. Training in health and safety requirements is provided to staff, however, modifications must be made in a few vocational areas in order to ensure that the facilities meet the demands of the workforce for a healthy, safe environment. Adequate changing facilities must be provided for female students in nontraditional settings.

Component VIII: Program Plan and Evaluation

Does the District have written program plans where required that are evaluated according to specific regulatory requirements? Does it use the results of its evaluations to improve programs? Do parents have opportunities for input on needs, program implementation, evaluation, and improvement?

The district does not conduct a formal evaluation of the special education programs, services and administration. Parental opportunities for input on program needs and program improvement are limited. A special education parent advisory council, PAC, must be activated and must assist in the evaluation. The district reviews its curriculum for bias and stereotyping.

For Title I programs, a needs assessment and data analysis is conducted annually, to determine the types of programs and services to be provided to students. The effectiveness of Title I services is evaluated on at least an annual basis and Title I program changes occur as a result of the recommendations of the evaluation. Parents have opportunities to provide input on the program implementation, evaluation and improvement.

The district has also developed and implemented a program evaluation plan for Perkins Vocational and Technical Education.

Component IX: Record keeping

Does the District maintain required records and documentation for each specific program area? Are federal entitlement grants appropriately designed, amended, and monitored?

The district should review the child count, which includes students with unsigned IEPs. The district maintains the required records and documentation for each of the other program areas.

DEFINITION OF TERMS
FOR THE RATING OF EACH COMPLIANCE CRITERION

Commendable	Any requirement or aspect of a requirement implemented in an exemplary manner significantly beyond the requirements of law or regulation.
Implemented	The requirement is substantially met.
Implementation in Progress	In reference to compliance criterion MOA 17A, new Board of Education requirements became effective on April 2, 2001 regarding the use of physical restraint in publicly funded education programs. The district is currently engaged in staff training and is beginning implementation practices for these new requirements which the Department's onsite team anticipates will result in substantial compliance by the end of the 2001-2002 school year.
Partially Implemented	The requirement, in one or several important aspects, is not entirely met.
Not Implemented	The requirement is totally or substantially not met.
Not Applicable	The requirement does not apply to the school district or charter school.

COMPONENT I: ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT PROGRESS

The criteria in this component examine whether the District has implemented an assessment system that uses appropriate instruments, conducted according to the specified timelines and covering the appropriate content areas to determine instructional needs of students for the program areas listed below:

- Special Education (Report Issues # SE 1- SE 14)
 - Title I (Report Issues # TI 1-4)
- Perkins Vocational and Technical Education (Report Issues # P 1-4)
 - Transitional Bilingual Education (Report Issues # 1-2A)

Department of Education Findings:

Career and technical courses have been aligned with the Curriculum Frameworks. The plan, which was submitted to the Department of Education in 1994 to promote academic and career and technical integration, must be revised and strengthened to reflect numerous staffing and curriculum changes that have occurred in the past nine years. There is evidence of sporadic efforts to design integration projects, however, no current and formal planning efforts exist to promote this initiative. Additionally, the district does not provide aides and supports in the vocational courses.

A proactive plan to fully utilize technology in order to improve education has been developed and is being enthusiastically implemented by the school district. Classrooms and shops are equipped with state of the art computers. Current software and applicable technical skills are incorporated into each academic and technical course. The application of computer software, including spreadsheets and databases, are used as a part of challenging projects in academic and career and technical courses.

Department of Education Findings:

Instruction in all aspects of the industry is evident in career and technical courses, and could be strengthened and reinforced in more academic areas. There is indication that as teachers are attempting to work together on integrated projects, all aspects will be reinforced. There are currently several field trips to businesses, guest speakers, and industry conducted mock interviews that provide students with multiple opportunities to explore and understand all aspects of the industry.

The cooperative education coordinator monitors all work-based learning sites for compliance. Although technical instructors are encouraged to visit work-based learning sites, it has not been possible. Technical instructors should be allowed time to visit each work site to ensure all aspects of the industry are included in the experience. Written agreements for co-op placements could be strengthened by including a statement regarding the requirement for experience in all aspects of the industry.

	Rating: Partially Implemented DISTRICT RESPONSE REQUIRED: Yes

Department of Education Findings:

In general, individuals who are members of special populations are provided equal access to a full range of courses and activities in an effort to enable them to meet or exceed state established levels of performance. Although there are inclusion aides and bilingual aides in the classrooms, there are no aides and supports in the vocational courses. There is a full-time adjustment counselor and a full-time social worker to support the temporary and long term needs of students in order to maintain performance. A community of deaf and hard of hearing students has been successfully mainstreamed into the school with full access to all programs. Assistive technology and supportive devices are available as needed. The current admissions policy is being reviewed as part of the proposed changes in the Chapter 74 regulations.

Department of Education Findings:

All career and technical education instructors are appropriately certified.

COMPONENT VII: SCHOOL FACILITIES

The criteria in this component examine whether the district maintains facilities that are conducive to learning, facilitate integration, and provide equal access and opportunity for students to achieve in the program areas listed below:

- Special Education (Report Issues # SE 55)
- Civil Rights Methods of Administration (MOA) (Report Issues MOA 22-23)
 - Perkins Vocational and Technical Education (Report Issue # P 20)
 - Transitional Bilingual Education (Report Issues # TBE 18-19)

Department of Education Findings:

The school district utilized its program advisory committees to review equipment and facilities in order to ensure that instructional facilities meet the demands of the workforce for state-of-the-art facilities. A safety committee has developed and periodically updates an Occupational and Health and Safety Plan. Training in health and safety requirements is provided to staff. Appropriate local fire and building inspections are done in a timely manner. The following deficiencies/problem areas exist in the shop areas and must be addressed:

Eyewash stations must be installed in Electrical, Graphic Arts and Metal Fabrication and Plumbing; A fire blanket must be installed in Electrical; Adequate changing facilities must be provided for female students in Auto Body and Electrical; In Plumbing, problems with ventilation exist with melting out cast-iron projects. The current ventilation does not adequately remove the smoke associated with this type of project.

COMPONENT VIII: PROGRAM PLAN AND EVALUATION

The criteria in this component examine whether the district has written programs plans that are evaluated according to specific regulatory requirements and whether parents have opportunities for input on needs, program implementation, evaluation, and improvement in the program areas listed below:

- Special Education (Report Issue # SE 56)
- Civil Rights Methods of Administration (MOA) (Report Issues MOA 24-25)

7 CFR Parts: 210 National School Lunch Program
 215 Special Milk Program for Children
 220 School Breakfast Program
 227 Nutrition Education and Training Program
245 Determining Eligibility for Free and Reduced Price Meals and Free Milk in Schools

The criteria in this component of the Coordinated Program Review examine whether the School Food Authority ensures that the requirements for participation in the National School Lunch, School Breakfast, Special Milk and Commodity School Programs are being implemented. These requirements specify program responsibilities of local officials in the areas of program administration, preparation and service of nutritious meals, use of program funds, program monitoring, reporting and record keeping. The findings included in this section of the report have been made through on-site activities completed by the Department's Nutrition Programs and Services team member.

APPENDIX II:
SCHOOL DISTRICT PROFILE INFORMATION

The information which is provided in this Appendix was drawn from data supplied by the school district. The Department's visiting team carefully reviewed this data as part of its planning for the onsite visit and in preparing this Coordinated Program Review Report. This district-wide information, together with more detailed school building data, is periodically updated by the school district and is available in an evercurrent form on the Department's internet web site at <<http://profiles.doe.mass.edu/>>.

School and District Profiles

Definitions of Terms

Profiles

The Massachusetts Department of Education collects information about schools and districts. Some of the information collected is published in School and District Profiles on DOE web pages. The information provides a snapshot of the educational picture in communities across the state.

Now districts view, add, update and delete their own district and school information over the web to make sure that the information is as up-to-date and accurate as possible. In addition, the general public will be able to view Directory information about each school district in the state. Individuals can retrieve for themselves information such as school personnel, school programs (e.g. School Choice and TBE) and the location of specialized services such as Special Education Collaboratives, and Vocational Training Programs.

The list below provides an explanation of information presented in the Profiles.

Directory Information

DOE Code: The DOE Code, also referred to as the Organization Code, is an eight digit numeric code assigned by the Massachusetts Department of Education to every organization listed in the Directory Profiles, including every district and school in the Commonwealth. For districts and schools, the first four digits represent the District Code and the last four digits represent the School Code. Thus the organization code "02660505" stands for "0266" (Sharon Public Schools) + "0505" (Sharon High). If a form requires the 8-digit DOE school code it is calling for the entire organization code.

Prior to the 2001 school year, organization codes contained six digits (three for the district and three for the school.) With the exception of some special needs schools, the eight digit codes are the same as the six digit codes with one zero added before the district code and another zero added before the school code. Thus, Sharon High's old six digit organizational code was 266505.

Please Note: The Department's Organization Code is not the same as the Institution codes assigned by the College board for SAT and AP results. Nor is it the same as the NCES code assigned to Massachusetts schools by the U.S. Department of Education.

Grades/Schools*: indicates the number and grade range of elementary, middle/junior high and high schools in the district, as well as the total number of schools in the district and the grade range of the school system. An elementary range beginning with "PK" indicates the district has pre-kindergarten. A high school range ending in "13" or "14" indicates the district has a post-graduate program. Kindergarten starting age indicates the age as of a particular date at which children are eligible to begin kindergarten.

Services: Services include:

- Inter-district Choice: indicates whether students from other districts may enroll in the district through the state school choice program, which is voluntary and on a space-available basis.
- Intra-district Choice: indicates whether the district has a school choice program within the school district for students who live in the district.
- Vocational Education: indicates whether the district operates a Chapter 74 approved vocational education program.
- Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE): indicates whether the district operates a TBE program. Under Massachusetts law, a district must provide a TBE program in a particular language if there are 20 or more limited English proficient students in that particular language group enrolled in the district. Limited English proficient students are students whose first language is not English and who cannot perform ordinary class work in English.
- METCO: indicates whether the district participates in the state METCO program, which promotes voluntary desegregation by enrolling minority students from Boston and Springfield in suburban schools.

Relationships: Relationships include:

- Member of Regional Districts*: for local school districts, indicates the name(s) of any academic and/or vocational regional district(s) of which the local school district is a member. For regional school districts, indicates the names of member local school districts. A regional school district provides educational services to more than one town.

* District level data only.

Enrollment

Enrollment by Grade: indicates the enrollment for grades Pre-kindergarten (PK), kindergarten through 12, post-graduate grades 13 and 14, and ungraded (u/g) students for the listed school year.

Race/Ethnicity: indicates the percent of enrollment by race/ethnicity for the listed school year. The reporting categories are those used by the U.S. Bureau of the Census.

Selected Populations: indicates the percent of enrollment represented by students in special education programs*, students who are limited English proficient, and students eligible to receive free or reduced price lunch*. Data are for the listed school year.

Children Attending Public Schools*: indicates the percent of school-age children in a city or town attending public schools, for the listed school years.

* District level data only.

Test Results

Massachusetts Comprehensive Assessment System (MCAS): Click the MCAS link to see MCAS results for the district or school.

For additional information about Massachusetts Comprehensive Assessment System (MCAS), please refer to the Department of Education's MCAS web site at www.doe.mass.edu/mcas.

SAT: The district or school's SAT results are displayed for the listed years.

People

A list of people who work in the organization. Each name is linked to contact information for the person.

Finance

Per Pupil Expenditures*: are calculated by dividing a district's operating costs by its average pupil membership. Operating costs include expenditures for administration, instruction, pupil services, transportation, plant maintenance, and fixed charges. These costs do not include capital outlay and long-term interest on school debt. Average pupil membership includes students who receive services in the district's schools, as well as students receiving home or hospital instruction. Data for regular education, special education, bilingual education and vocational education students are provided in addition to the total for all day programs, for the listed school years.

Teacher Salary*: indicates the minimum and maximum teacher salaries available, for the listed school years.

Foundation Budget Spending Comparison*: The education reform act established a foundation budget for each school district. This budget represents the minimum level of spending needed to provide an adequate education for the district's students. The foundation budget is made up of 19 separate categories. The chart shows the district's actual spending in each category for the listed school year as a percentage of the district's foundation budget. If the percentage exceeds 100%, the district spent more in the category than suggested by the foundation budget. If the percentage is less than 100%, the district spent less. Significant variations between local spending and the foundation budget, or between local spending and the statewide averages, should be reviewed closely. In some cases, the differences may be due to unique circumstances and needs within the district. In other cases, the differences may suggest potential areas for review and improvement.

Click one of the links in the Finance section for more school finance information.

* District level data only.

Other Data

Dropout/Attendance Rates: indicates the percentage of students in grades 9-12 who dropped out of school between July 1 and June 30 prior to the listed year and who did not return to school by October 1. Dropouts are defined as students who leave school prior to graduation for reasons other than transfer to another school.

Attendance Rate: indicates the average percentage of enrolled students present in school for the listed school year.

Student Exclusions: indicates the number of student exclusions that occurred during the listed school year. An exclusion is defined as the removal of a student for disciplinary purposes permanently, indefinitely or for more than ten consecutive school days.

Plans of High School Graduates: indicates the post-graduate intentions of students for the listed school year.

Technology: indicates the number of students for every one computer and the percent of classrooms with Internet access. Data are for the listed school year; "DNR" appears for schools and districts which did not yet report data
